

IT'S REAL

Vineyards in Jesus' Time

Vineyards are places where farmers grow grape vines. In Jesus' time, farmers . . .

. . . hired guards to watch over their vineyards so their grapes wouldn't be stolen.

. . . built walls to protect their vineyards.

. . . built watchtowers where family members stayed to watch over the grapes.

Here are some pictures of vineyards today:

God Gives Me Enough

God has enough love to share with everyone!
God gives me enough of these things so that I can share with others:

☐ smiles

☐ a story about Jesus

☐ hugs

☐ a song I sing

☐ a picture I draw

Here's my drawing of one more thing I can share:

Grapes for Everyone!

Jesus said: Some workers worked all day. Others worked only a few hours. But the farmer gave everyone the same amount of money. God is like the farmer. God has enough love for everyone.

Solve all the math problems. Find three grape bunches with the same answer. Draw a line from these grapes to each kid, so each kid will have enough !
